Principal's Report

Members of our National Junior Honor Society will host their "Coin Wars" to raise money for children with special needs.

NCTies was a great success. The students made presentations, and there were many interesting sessions for teachers to attend.

A new math curriculum for K-5 has been chosen. HMH offers professional development, teacher resources, as well as engaging small/whole group digital, hands on and workbook lessons.

National Lutheran Schools Week has just concluded. Twin Day, student-led Chapels, Temple Talks, Choirs @ church and fun field trips were among many of the exciting activities.

Admissions & Marketing

Admissions now is 155 - 165 students which is standard for this time of year. The 2024-2025 goal is 180 with a focus on JK - K.

One of the future goals is to have students as "School Ambassadors" to act as guides during school tours.

May establish a relationship with Fusion School to redirect students with special needs.

There is a new brochure listing our summer camps.
Admissions will be a visible presence during VBS @ RLC.

Teacher Rep News

Carey reported things are going well and acknowledged that teachers are ready for Spring Break.

Treasurer's Report

Application fees are a little below budget.

The Annual Safety Fund received $10,000 + in donations.

A golf tournament fundraiser is in the works for next Fall.

Still waiting to see what has been granted by the Opportunity Scholarship Fund.

Additional Information

Mackenzie noted Board member terms and confirmed years of service.

Year end survey questions will be reviewed and sent to parents & teachers later this year.

Committee Updates

An update from the Safety Committee was given.
