

1. Kindergarten Teacher

Job Type: Full-Time | Start Date: August 2026

Job Description

Resurrection Lutheran School is a Christ-centered, accredited private school serving junior kindergarten through 8th grade in Cary, NC. We are seeking a dedicated, faith-driven Kindergarten Teacher to join our community for the 2026–27 school year.

The Kindergarten Teacher will provide a nurturing, academically rich learning environment that supports the spiritual, academic, social, and emotional development of each student. This role requires a teacher who models Christian love daily and partners with families to build a strong foundation for lifelong learning.

Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver engaging, developmentally appropriate instruction aligned with NC State Standards and Christian educational values
- Integrate faith formation naturally into daily classroom instruction
- Differentiate instruction to meet the needs of individual learners
- Communicate regularly and proactively with families
- Collaborate with fellow teachers, administration, and church staff
- Participate in school events, chapel, and community activities
- Maintain accurate records of student progress and assessment

Required Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education or related field
- Valid NC teaching license (or eligibility for licensure)
- Demonstrated Christian faith and commitment to Christ-centered education
- Strong classroom management and communication skills

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience teaching kindergarten or early elementary grades
- Familiarity with Christian educational philosophy
- Experience with technology integration in the classroom
